Reflections 2016-2017

"What Is Your Story?"

Tell us or show us what this year's theme means to you!

You could write about it, sing about it, or paint a picture of it.
You could even create a photograph, a dance or video of it.

Use your imagination!!!

Ready?

My ideas:

Parents, now it's your turn. Please encourage your child to take these thoughts a step further and participate in Reflections, the national PTA cultural arts program. Entries based on the theme "What Is Your Story?" can be submitted in one or more of these categories:

Visual Arts (drawing, collage, painting, etc.)
Musical composition
Photography
Literature (a story, poem, essay, etc)
Dance Choreography
Film/Video

Entries can be submitted on Friday, December 2nd, 2016.

To print out the entry forms and rules, go to the Reed website. Select Parents – PTA - Reflections.

To enter, please make sure to do the following:

1. Read and follow the General Participation Rules which are included with this packet.
2. Read and follow the rules for the category/categories that you child is entering. These can be found on the Reed website listed above. Please note: children can enter as many categories as they would like but only one entry per category.
3. Fill out the Entry Form which is included with this packet. One entry form is needed for each entry.
4. Either you or your child can bring the entry and the completed entry form to school on the drop off day of December 2nd.

If you have any questions please contact Jill Baimel at (203) 364-1979, Renee Deveau at (203) 218-4165, Kris Powers at (203) 426-8665 or Kat Banas at (203) 482-2772.

Have fun and good luck!!
